

K-LOVE radio station has been awesome in uniting our music with our teenagers. To displace K-Love by an LPFM broadcaster that is non-christian would be tragic. This station is quite popular with the youth and gives them sound, positive, lyrics to keep their focus off drugs, sex and violence. This alone is critical to our community.